

The Open Society Foundation for South Africa (OSF-SA) invites you to a photography exhibition titled:

The Platinum Belt: An investigation into the human, social, environmental and health costs of platinum mining in South Africa

by Ilan Godfrey

commissioned by OSF-SA

The launch will take place as follows:

Date: Wednesday 8 February 2017

Venue: Cape Town School of Photography, 4th floor, 62 Roeland Street (cnr. Roeland and Canterbury Street), Cape Town

Time: 18:00

Ilan Godfrey will be in attendance and Dr Sonwabile Mnwana - Deputy Director at the Society, Work and Development Institute (SWOP) at WITS, and researcher in the Mining and Rural Transformation in Southern Africa (MARTISA) project – will present on aspects of his research on Mining and Rural Struggles in Mokopane, Limpopo.

Refreshments will be served.

Parking is available across the road at Orms Direct, 95 Upper Canterbury Street.

Please RSVP to Molly Smit on molly@mollysmit.co.za or 083 522 2550 by Thursday 2 February 2017

Please note this exhibition will be up at the Cape Town School of Photography from Thursday 2 February to Wednesday 15 February 2017 and will be part of the First Thursdays exhibition route.

