Registration Form

Please complete the enclosed registration form and return it to an AMI volunteer in the course of your 1st day. You will need to have returned your form in order to receive an AMI t-shirt on Wednesday 10 Feb.

Agenda

The AMI will strive to start all sessions on time as per the agenda. Please respect these times and should you be late, please use the side entrance to the main AMI venue. Please be mindful of noise in the AMI venues.

Training & Breakaway Sessions

All group sessions within the AMI programme have limited capacity depending on the venue in which they are scheduled. Please move to another group if one is full. You are encouraged to visit more than one session during the AMI to diversify your experience.

Translations

The AMI offers simultaneous translation in English, French and Portuguese via headphones. French and Portuguese delegates are welcome to address the AMI in their home language and therefore ALL delegates should take a headset in case it is needed. Please note the AMI pays dearly for missing equipment, please ensure you return your headset to the volunteers at the end of each day.

Volunteers

AMI volunteers are easily recognisable in their orange t-shirts. Please ask them if you are lost or acquiring assistance with any aspect of the AMI.

Wi-Fi

Please take AMI delegates have access to free wi-fi provided by the Double Tree Hotel during conference hours. The wi-fi code will be displayed in the conference venues.

Social Media

Please follow the AMI on Twitter (@altminingindaba) and join the Alternative Mining Indaba Group on Facebook. Updates and documentation are also published on our website:

www.altminingindaba.co.za.

If you are tweeting about the AMI please use the hashtag #AMI2016

Printing

Should you require any printing to be done, please approach the Double Tree staff. This will be to your own account.

Mining Legal Clinic (MLC)

Lawyers participating in MLC will make themselves available to AMI delegates in a one on one setting during the course of the AMI.

Participants can sign up for the clinic at the designated MLC desk on the conference floor.

Meals & Parking

Lunch and tea/coffee breaks are included in the daily delegate package and paid for by the organisers. All other meals and expenses, including daily parking, are to delegate's own accounts.

Exhibitions

A portion of the 'The Price of Gold' by Thom Pierce will be displayed in the Executive Boardroom on the Mezzanine Level. This is courtesy of the Open Society Foundation for South Africa and the Treatment Action Campaign.

There is space in the Harlem venue for materials display by participating organisations.

AMI 2016 March

The annual AMI March will take place on Wed 10 Feb at 10h30. Please collect your T-shirt and water at the Harlem venue and make a poster during the preceding refreshment break.

Buses will collect delegates from outside the Double Tree hotel, you are welcome to return via bus for lunch after the march.

Funders

The AMI could not take place without the generous support of our funders and partners.

Oxfam, OSF-SA, OSISA, IANRA, Norwegian Church Aid, IBIS, Bench Marks Foundation – we thank them all.
